

What Your Gift Buys for the Arts!

For $1 a week ($52 a year) your contribution can:

- Purchase scholarship tickets for four disadvantaged children to attend an in-school concert by the Winston-Salem Symphony.
- Purchase 200 pounds of clay for pottery classes at the Sawtooth School for Visual Art.
- Provide tuition money for one student to attend a summer arts camp.
- Sponsor two student artists (high school or college) to be Associated Artist members, helping them gain exposure to the professional artist community.

For $5 a week ($260 a year) your contribution can:

- Allow three artists to demonstrate their work at Piedmont Craftsmen's Annual Fair.
- Underwrite sheet music costs for the Piedmont Wind Symphony.
- Furnish materials for the "Tree of Life" project taken to public schools by members of the Hispanic Arts Initiative to teach about multicultural communities.
- Sponsor a young boy or girl's membership in the Winston-Salem Youth Residential Chorus for an entire year.

For $10 a week ($520 a year) your contribution can:

- Underwrite the annual spring show by the Kernersville Little Theatre.
- Support Old Salem Museums and Gardens operating costs through your sustaining membership as a "Friend of Salem."
- Provide five costumes for a Piedmont Opera stage production.
- Support a talented high-school or college student in being a "Choral Scholar" with the Piedmont Chamber Singers.

For $20 a week ($1040 a year) your contribution can:

- Sponsor an exhibition at the Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art (SECCA).
- Help provide in-school workshops in photography and music for elementary, middle- and high-school students.
- Be a "star" season sponsor for a Twin City Stage production.
- Provide tickets for 25 disadvantaged students to attend the biannual National Black Theatre Festival, taking place in Winston-Salem in 2011.
